

2nd Annual White Earth Tribal 4-H Youth Winter Camp

January 20th, and 21st, 2018 - 10:00am-3:00pm each day.

Where: White Earth Rediscovery Center, 29401 400th St, Waubun, MN, Come and celebrate Learning and Growing through Traditional Anishinaabeg Values.

The White Earth Tribal 4-H Program and White Earth Tribal and Community College (WETCC) Extension Service are excited to hold our 2nd Annual Cultural Winter Day-Camp. Come one day or two, with your family, for an introduction to 4-H Youth Activities, fishing, smoking fish, arts and/or crafts (all ages), language, games, food, and winter fun. Dress for the weather, and bring your family members; fun for all ages.

The University of Minnesota Extension, through the Youth Development Program, offers 4-H Community Programming serving the communities within the White Earth Reservation. 4-H provides youth opportunities to learn, explore, and grow through leadership.

Please RSVP for this event to: Dana Trickey at 218-236-2003, tric0014@umn.edu; Annette Graves at 218-236-2003; Or Rebecca Dallinger at 218-935-0417 Ext 314, rebecca.dallinger@wetcc.edu

The White Earth Tribal 4-H Program would like to say a Chi-Miigwech to the White Earth Tribal and Community College Extension Office for being a Major Partner and Sponsor of this event; as well as Mahnomen County 4-H Program, Clearwater County 4-H Program, Becker County 4-H Program, and Reeds Family Outfitters in Walker, MN.

This program is supported through National 4-H Council, funded by the United States Department of Justice Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) as part of OJJDP's national effort to improve the lives of young Native Americans by strengthening, expanding, and implementing youth mentoring activities.
